

P.M.T.

Pyramidal Memories Trasmutation

Steel
Storm
Staelhe

Transcription of
Joël Ducatillon's
Moncucco Conference

www.pyramidal-memories-transmutation.com

Thank you for being here. Tonight I will talk about PMT because there are new persons present here, whom I do welcome.

My intention today is to focus on the memories that manipulate us and attract events that we do not control and that we do not want, because they are most of the time unpleasant events, obstacles, tiredness, tough tests, sufferings and I assume that in fact we do personally create what we experience, without knowing it.

Actually events never come from the outside; they come from inside of us and are made, materialized by radiations that create geometrical shapes. These geometrical shapes become like energy power stations that are going to feed the behaviours of authorities as well as an individual, a financial situation or anything else. I do not perfectly understand the scientific process behind all this, but we do not need to understand everything, it is useless, what matters is to see how it globally functions and to understand that we are fully responsible for our lives, even when it comes to pigeon faeces that fall onto us as we go out; we are also responsible for that!

Nothing is by chance, besides the scientific do say so: There are no effects without a cause.

Then why would it be, when it comes to events, difficult relationships, lack of money, pain or illness, a sudden stroke of "bad" luck? Why would a virus come into my system rather than yours? Is it that the virus is racist? Why do some microbe attack teeth at the base instead of above? Haven't they got a scale? Television advertising says such things.

All this, believe me, is the expression of a "false matrix", which job is to get us to swallow these unbelievably stupid things.

To start with, if we do understand that we are responsible for what we live, yet it does radically change our vision of things. Well, I am not sure to know how I will explain this, but I am going to try.....There we are! It's been a long time since I don't explain these kind of things anymore, but I am going to try to make it clear in your mind and please don't hesitate to ask questions, because you are the ones that feed me, I am your mirror somehow, therefore if I say beautiful things it means that you are beautiful people, and if I say confuse things it will mean that you are full of confusion! (Laughs) This is how I avoid feeling guilty!

Now, you know that about six years ago, Diamond Water came out of a research that I was given to start in 1994, 12 years ago, and this research involves encoding little tubes like those (for those of you who have never seen them). It is little glass tubes made by a glass blower.

Inside them there is a DNA filament, besides this tube is called DNA 850, which is the name I was given in a dream. I do record codes within it, which are made of mathematic calculations transposed into sounds and if you want when I play the sounds that correspond to the figures, a programming takes place into this filament of light within the tube.

When for Diamond Water there were appreciatively 1000 codes, these DNA 850 now contain 11000 codes to apply this technology that I call: "Pyramidal Memories Transmutation". More codes will be added, there were 20 more last week, and others will come on top in January, this is the reason why all those who "operate" can expect some more shattering results since the signal is now given to make PMT a lot more efficient that it has been so far because they are cores that are starting to build up and people are now ready to receive superior intensity.

Question in the audience: What is PMT?

Well we are precisely here to speak about it. Pyramidal Memories transmutation is a technology of cellular memories transmutation that takes place thanks to these little tubes; this is why I had first to talk about the tubes before I can talk about PMT.

Question: Doesn't it have anything to do with Diamond Water?

Let's say that Diamond Water is the first child born from these DNA 850 encoders. With Diamond Water it is possible to transmute cellular memories when it is used insightfully, but let's say that the goal of Diamond Water is a little bit "general" now throughout the world, when from now on PMT allows us to get to the next step, and there will be another step again a little later, I don't know when.

What can I say now?... I am going to explain why it is so important to transmute memories at this moment in time. Because within this path of personal research, many of us are still hanging about the touristy halls of information, and there are too many who are still looking for enquiries rather than teachings. I do prefer to speak about "transformation" because as we transform we start to attract our own personal truth and our own path of life; when with information, which is needed at the beginning of the path because it is necessary to have data and it is important at a certain point to intellectually understand what is said outside of what newspapers and television show us, later on it is necessary to quickly get out of it.

In fact, our problem is to always get stuck inside the same roundabout, when we should be within the spiral instead of the roundabout. So we have to always redo the same thing, but a spiral above all the time. Well if you want, this technology helps to transmute the memories in the form of sessions that last about 45 minutes depending on the case. It is not a therapy, since there is no therapist, because the person who is holding the encoders and who turns around the subject in order to transmute the memories that she or he feels, does not do anything from her or his own energy.

In other words, whether it is a person at the beginning of the path or a very advanced one as far as consciousness is concerned, the work will be done as well.

As long as the person does the work conscientiously, as long as she or he is not doing it in a casual or neglecting way; but if this person feels the energy and has a true desire to help, then the process will automatically take place with the same efficiency as if it was me operating.

I am even sure that there are some operators here who do it better than me because I am rather a discoverer than a technician and it is not my talent, hopefully I do it well still, but well, sometimes I also have my own doubts.

So this technology was found on November 9 th 2004 , and there are many operators throughout the world doing this work, mainly in France , since France is the country which is the most avant-garde in this matter, but there are also some in Quebec , Cameroon , in Italy , Switzerland , and Spain . Do you see what I mean?

And it follows its own way, I don't do anything, I don't advertise, nothing, I let go, being in total impersonality, I let go, that's all, even if it would have to stop tomorrow, it will not be my problem, I produce, and after it has its own way, as for Diamond Water, it's as simple as that.

The person who receives the session is sitting on a chair, and there are 5 encoders on the floor – it is possible to put them like that, directly on the floor- but we generally prefer to put them into little candleholders just to avoid breaking them. They are set out in a square shape of 2.10 meters of diagonal, with one encoder in the middle underneath the chair.

The person is sitting just above the central one and the operator who is in front is going to activate the encoded DNA spirals that are within all the tubes. It is going to form a double pyramid, one with its tip toward the sky, the other tip toward the ground, and the common part of the fitting forms a transmutation room.

At this moment, a crystal of ether lends between the 7 th chakra and the back of the head. Some people feel it, some don't, I do see it sometimes, and it is this crystal that will raise the bodies' frequency- ether, astral, mental, and causal- towards the 5 th dimension, which means an octave above.

In the mean time, during the night preceding the session, the person's soul will go into the archives to get the memories it desires to transmute; in other words, it is neither the subject nor the operator who decides what needs to be done. There is no will, therefore any notions of power any longer, no more attempts, no more constraints, and no more exigencies.

The soul decides, if the soul does not want to "give" it will not give, and if it wants to give, it will. So this soul will have prepared, like "put on the edge" the memories that need to be taken away; the soul is going to automatically put them in the lobby. The person having these memories within the vestibule may feel restless or anxious.

During the session, these memories will be projected into this "room", which is of course invisible to the naked eye, in the form of strips, cords, paving stones, threads, sometimes cardboard, looking like pulled out cardboard, and the operator will feel all those threads while exploring all the space. As soon as the operator feels a mass of density, she or he is going to get into it with the encoder, and this encoder will start to burn them, which means to transmute them, to change them into light, and from then on, there will be a percentage of memories that will be transmuted. Approximately 15 to 20 hours later it is going to start being transmuted into the flesh, if the soul has given a lot, the flesh will be tired, or there can be a little anger going out, or some fear, but it will never be too bad..... The faces lose the masks that make the body older, since these memories are not alive, they are residual stocks, what MERE used to call the sedimentary memories, fossilizations, and they are not alive, and it is what makes the physical body older.

Do you know that these memories can sometimes be extremely virulent? Since 1992, I have the ability to transmute people's memories through my own body; I wouldn't advise you to reach this initiatory stage, because it is very destructive for the organs and especially the heart. When I am in front of somebody whose soul asks to transmute memories, I take these memories inside my body, and the result is that half an hour later I have to change since all my clothes smell like celery.....It means that these memories are like poison for the physical body.

For instance I see people who have diseases as rheumatoid polyarthrititis; it is memories of rigidity and of roboticization so deeply marked that they produce acids inside their blood, which riddles the skeleton, and notably for polyarthrititis. It is often memories of persons who used to be in the army and did obey to orders. For example they didn't dare refusing to shoot so many people, and then they are co-responsible for this karma, and that is why they will get a good dose of polyarthrititis because these memories have to pass through the physical body in order to be transformed by the soul. Since the acts were created by the physical body, it is then through the physical, psycho, psychic, and affective bodies that it has to be transmuted.

In other words, the physical body is the way for the alchemy of memories transmutation to take place. Within the ancient system, which still exists for the majority of people on Earth, transmutation happens by dint of blows and sufferings; it means that if we arrive on earth with memories of violence, automatically at a certain age we start to receive violence from all sides, from everyone, at work, from our companion, from the neighbor, from so-and-so who prosecutes you, through insults, or through blows.

And it is these repeated sufferings and stress that will help this memory of violence to get transmuted inside the cell.

Moreover in ancient initiatory systems, which smell a bit like naphthalene, people used to scourge themselves, they used to fast, to pray for weeks, to go without sex, go without food, and they used to go without almost everything in order to suffer, to transmute as many memories as possible. They wanted to do it because they are very courageous souls but also because there was no other system then or they used to take holy orders, or were leading ascetic lives.

The second system is the one that Mère and Sri Aurobindo started in the 20s and 30s, which was to see oneself into the other; in other words like Master Moria used to say: "What is it that I don't like of myself in you?" In other words, it is to spot in all that surrounds us what we dislike and what we dislike is generally something we have in ourselves but which is not "transformed". In general it causes a reaction, and if it does it means that there is no action, and then we have a DEAD act. However a reaction never brought joy or abundance. If you throw a ball against the wall, it will come back, because the wall "reacts" since the wave length of the ball's molecule is the same as the wall's one, so as the wall cannot integrate it, it goes back to the sender.....But if the wall was into the spirit of love, on a higher frequency, this ball would go through and would end its course dying slowly.....And him who does this, after a certain number of times wouldn't throw it anymore, because he would understand.

Do you understand what are an action and a reaction? So as soon as there is a reaction, there is a rebound of an event, a situation, an action that comes and bounces onto the dry and desiccated space of the ego's cellular memories.

This is what I understood, and it took me many years.....

So that's the way it is, Mère and Sri Aurobindo- even though I did not read their works but I do feel very close to them, as a matter of fact this research is for a great part guided by Mère- themselves work in the underground of the Titicaca lake to create the new DNA of the 6 th human race, and these encoders are very connected to the Titicaca lake, it was shown to me in a dream... And so there is a whole big piece of work with a ground team and an air team, who work to form these new data for the human DNA. You are the craftswomen and men of this New Earth and of this new terrestrial population, the children of the earth, and not anymore the children of an untrue system and matrix, which have manipulated us during 400 000 years!

We are getting out of it, it sticks, there is glue, but indeed we do get out of it!

So, the second system was to always keep looking throughout the day at all that offends us, all that makes us react, to be aware of it, to accept it, but also to love it since as long as we do accept it, it is like putting an apple into the mouth. After that, it has to be digested and the form has to be removed so that the blood can take the essential nutriments, letting go of the shape. When you go to the bathroom, you have never seen an apple or a banana going out, have you?..... What does it mean?

It means that when we experience something, an event, and this is the reason why I was telling you, for those who take notes, you can take notes, but please don't remain attached to what I say, feel the essence that is in you and quit the form, it is better to drink the wine, taste the wine and forget about the shape of the glass, you will be much freer this way!

This sort of work, I have done it for about 12 years, it is already much quicker than to receive blows, to receive 1000 smacks before all this can be transformed, but it is still quite long. In 12 years, I have seen inside myself exactly 1365 memories, I took notes everyday. It is the kind of work you cannot do if you work all day and you have kids because it requires to take a couple of hours each night to recall all the things you have been through and all the reactions you've had during the day; and then, to understand, especially considering that another day is coming. It takes time, a lot of time!

But this work is magnificent because the everyday routine becomes a field of experiences and an invaluable adventure in this case, since even if you shave every day, you brush your teeth, you take the same bus, you meet the same faces at work, or when you are shopping, they look different each time because you are different, and if you change they change too, their expression changes as well.

WHY? Because it is the subconscious memories inside us, which frequencies pass through our body, that are going to feed the behavior of the one who is in front of us ! It is not her or him who is mean towards me! It is memories inside me that are going to feed the spitefulness of the one who has the probability to express it, because her or his soul is less advanced, or because she or he has traumas that allow her or him to do so.

In other words, we are the total creator of all that is and happens to us and on the global scale it is exactly the same. There are always two blocs, before it was capitalism and communism, now there is north and south, or king of the north and king of the south. So if you get out of good and evil, if you get out of this confrontation duality and if you look at it as if good and evil were two lovers that fancy making love together in order to create a child that is called the Tree of Life, from then on you quit the submission to this global manipulation.

The problem is, you may want it with your head, your mind but yet you have 5 to 6000 memories that are still into that state. So the work was to "look at" all those memories, which requires time and energy. This is the reason why I was asked to find this technology called PMT, to accelerate the process, and I am now able to say a little bit more than 6 month ago, since it exists since a year or more...I can tell you for instance that if you receive a session monthly for 7 month, it will amount to an average of 5 years of work on yourself, in other words it is not too bad!

Of course some people tell me: "Do you have the right to remove karma? It is not allowed"

They are not wrong, the person has to live, to reap what's been sowed, it is the law of cosmic love, and otherwise the person will never become intelligent. But it seems that we are now in a state of "urgency" and that there must be a group of people on earth to serve as a core, a vortex disconnected from the untrue matrix web, in order to create a breakthrough of light that is going to invade the earth with a community of 5 th dimension, where there is no more good or evil, but rather the child born from their copulation, their union, their fusion, exactly as the electric bulb comes from the fusion of + and -. If you chase all the - threads, nothing works anymore, and if you chase the bad or if you want to do well, then it is the worst.

What has destroyed the world is the "will to do well" it is exactly what it is said in the book called "Les Dialogues avec l'Ange" (Aubier publishing). I can assure you that if you meditate about this you will understand that it is the worse poison. It is best to never want to do well, you only have to BE, and what needs to happen will happen, that's all. Whether it is good or bad, who cares, because every time you put one pound of potatoes on one side of the scales anyway there needs to be a weight on the other side.

So if you are the one who needs to put weight on the other side, even if it is not food, it will be said that it is BAD but it will still balance the scales. Do you understand now why you should not want "to do well"? Because if you always want to do well, you will attract a whole bunch of people who will do harm and it will be like that non stop: a tennis game. So it is best to BE and try to understand these things and integrate them little by little, it doesn't happen in a day, but as long as you transmute all these memories that are still within this system of duality, you eyes open and you start to understand things that you would never have understood before.

You have to understand that we are getting out of the good and evil system for those who are at the avant-garde, but good and evil had a reason to be.

In the past this knowledge had not come yet, and still, it only comes sparingly, since even amongst people who have an inner path, very few do perceive it, it was necessary to go through this balancing...

I don't know if you understand me well? They could not access this. We can say that the pioneers were Mère and Sri Aurobindo who used to understand these things, who understood that good and evil were as the left and right hand of God and that darkness made us believe that we had to chase evil and take one's part or the other's part! This is how "they" manipulate us, because if we don't go any further we remain blind as we become the supporters of this system.

So then we do have a lack as far as heart's opening is concerned and we remain into judgment.

If we are into judgment then we are not into love and automatically we create conflicts inside ourselves.

In the matter of chemistry, there is acid and alkaline, if you put your finger into acid you burn yourself, if you put your finger into something alkaline, it gets burned as well, but if you mix the two at a normal dose, it becomes neutral. The consciousness of the Tree of life is this neutrality.

It is the middle way of the Buddha, it is the funambulist walking on the rope with the balancing pole of good and evil and who uses this to have his center of gravity really penetrating and that grounds itself into the earth. Because as long as we haven't quitted this system we are neither fully incarnate on earth, nor within our body, we are incarnate into a spider's web that stops here, at the mental solar plexus and we function, we see all the clichés of our life through this narrow minded vision of good and evil, we are not as little kids, as babies, we are not grounded into the Earth, so our vision is distorted, and we lack lucidity.

Now, even though we know this, if we have the 2/3 of our memories still stuck there, well it is not obvious, then PMT does this work of acceleration, acceleration, acceleration and I can assure you that it is something that is on the top level right now.....

What I am trying to explain to you with PMT is that when a soul incarnates it is listing all that it has to heal and automatically it will have to choose genetics as far as social, religious, financial situation and so on...is concerned. This it what is going to allow these memories to find a resonance in order to be able to radiate at a given time when the bodies will attain maturity, and then to attract situations that will hit into the memory so that the person may suffer, allowing this way the transmutation of the memories.

Let's take an example: Let's imagine a soul that has a lot of violence in it, and it wants to get the rid of it during this life time, since it can't take having all this violence choking anymore...but the soul is not able to eliminate it in between two lives, since between two lives it is like holidays and there are no tools, there is no physical body useful for this type of transformation. Then, automatically, this soul is going to choose a family where there is violence, and perhaps this soul as a little child is going to be beaten, or if it is less hard, it will see the father beat the mother, or the opposite, which is less common, but there will be shows of violence.

Inside a collective consciousness system, if the individual is not informed, he will fall into an opposite reaction later on; either, if he is less advanced, he will keep being into violence and will become delinquent, or if he is a little bit more advanced he will create an anti-violence association and he will advocate nonviolence, like Gandhi or John Lennon and this is how later memories react and we attract murderers. Or, he is going to understand what happens and he will start to accept and to forgive his father and mother for having beaten him or for having beaten each other in front of him. There, he is already taking a step into love, since he is not into judgment anymore and he understands what he's been going through as a necessary pain to become better.

In other words, he transposes his personal identity as John or James towards the soul's identity, and he understands that the affective and physical psychic vehicle is nothing but a way to transmute and alchemies his memories in order for the soul to purify itself. If he goes even further, he is going to understand that he does have this inside him, that he has this huge amount of violence, and even though in his external manifestation he will advocate pacifism, he will know that he has always manifested the opposite of the memory that is present inside him- it is an implacable law-this is fundamental of course!

Sometimes, the weathercock can turn over and this is why we say "Still waters run deep" because when they go angry it can be murderous; for the one who is advocating pacifism, something may happen one day, something goes click and there can be a turnaround and then he can also express a brutal behavior since this violence has been contained within the pressure cooker during 20/30/40 or 50 years, so the two sides are always there. We cannot have one without the other; someone who is generous, who gives a lot, and who does it with a desire, not with awareness, but with an emotional reaction, you can be sure that in the back of it there is "I take, I take, I help myself and I pump."

Look well around you, and look at people in this way, and look at yourself in this way, and you won't let anybody fool you anymore.

So this soul that has chosen a violent genetics, so that the memories can go through, radiate, and attract situations has a whole piece of work to take in order to heal this. Back in time, when we didn't have access to all this knowledge (and of course churches did their best so that this knowledge could never reach people's ears), it used to take about 15 lives to manage becoming better; this is the reason why this story has been lasting since hundreds of thousands of years. Do you realize the amount of time we have wasted, simply because we didn't have ONE KEY!

This is what I call the consciousness of the Tree of Life. You have a non-expressed memory of negative polarity and an expressed memory of positive polarity.

Sometimes there is a turnaround, the non-expressed becomes the expressed and vice-versa.

With magnets, minus attracts plus and plus attracts minus. When we fall in love it is this! It is not love, it is only memories that attract each other because there have opposite polarities.

This young man contains a form of violence that he doesn't express because he has experienced it during his childhood, and he is clever enough to understand that it hurts and so he refuses to express it, so he has repressed it and here he is going to manifest an extreme sweetness, and he is going to violently react against an act of violence towards a child for instance, and here we have the word REACTION.

As long as he reacts it means that he has this program inside himself, otherwise he wouldn't react; it does not mean that he wouldn't help the beaten child, but he would not do it from a "reaction" he would do it as an action, and it would be useful since the one who is beating the child would immediately stop thanks to the powerfulness of the action, which is in overdrive compared to the power of the reaction that is almost null and will, at the opposite, feed the man who will beat even stronger.

This man will necessarily attract a woman expressing violence and who will have repressed gentleness. Of course, from the instant where these memories start to attract each other, we will say that it is an intense passion; it doesn't have anything to do with love, because as long as there is attraction, there is also repulsion, it means that it is not love, but you have to experience it. Be careful, you cannot throw all these things out, it is part of the school, this is like nursery school, we can say that it is like a nursery school of love, we learn the ABC's of love!

All of us have to go through all this and at the instant of the fusion radiation, let's say this magnetic attraction, we don't see anything, because love is blind, this kind of love makes you blind. This is the reason why those who have had many lives of passion with a lot of unbridled sexuality do have karmas where they are blind, to recover, to purify; I have seen this many and many times with blind people's previous lives.

Well, as soon as passion is consumed, consummate, what happens? The non-expressed violence of the man is going to feed his partner's aggressiveness, who is going to get more and more nervous and who will always be flying off the handle, and she will become the shrew awaiting him with her rolling pin every night; and as far as he is concerned it will remind him of his father or mother. In this case it would be profitable for the man to tell his wife "Why are you suddenly so violent with me, and why do I suffer from it, and why am I scared of it? Let's have a look at our respective parent's behaviors; they were the mirrors of what we carry inside ourselves and thank you for showing me this."

From then on, there is a good piece of work that starts to be done and when the two do it within the relationship, it gets decoded much faster as well, there are well installed ties within a couple, and when most of the memories, the most important memories have been transmuted, there is no attraction anymore; and then either the souls direct them to other relationships or they stay together but with a wonderful brother & sister conviviality, a magnificent complicity, a beautiful harmony because there is no more reaction for anything, not even for the salt we put in the fried potatoes, whether there is too much or not enough, there is no reaction anymore; because all that will happen will be alright, will be just !

So you see how it goes; now there are other systems, for instance if you see a woman (and it is something we can see with PMT sessions) who has had lives incarnated as men extremely mean towards women, at a certain point she will have to incarnate as a woman-these are opportunist souls who wanted to incarnate as men at a time when men had the power, it was more easy, women used to obey, it was convenient! Now it has changed, fortunately! - and this soul has developed a lot of masculinity and contempt for women, and it has subjected women to many disastrous things!

But from the day the soul becomes totally one-legged since it has never developed its feminine side, it will have to incarnate as a woman and attract persecutors, torturers and tyrants; then in this case the soul is scared and will want to become homosexual, in other words it will want to choose love within a woman, because even if it attracts a woman who has torturer's aspects, it will still be less hard than if it is a 1, 85 m guy weighting 90 kilos. That's it! How many times have I seen this!

And in this case, the process is very clever, because this soul is going to choose a mother who contains memories of homosexuality, without being gay during this lifetime. So you can see that even homosexuality is sometimes a necessary step for the soul because there was an exaggeration during masculine lives or during feminine lives, and it cannot go from one pole to the other since it has been into extremes, so it has to take this "bridge" during a lifetime, sometimes two in order to manage balancing its energies. This is another example.

There are also cases that I have mentioned in the book about Diamond Water, for instance there was a couple who had sold their house, with the money they bought another house from people who are on a "path", so they did trust them, they didn't look at it too much in depth, and in the end, a week after, they started to realize that there were serious deficiencies in the house that hadn't been pointed out. Therefore, as the law makes it possible, they decided to cancel, but those who had sold the house never gave the 500.000 francs since they had already spent that money...the legal action lasted 5 years and still had no news...

When I met this couple in a seminar that I was giving about memories, I asked the man: "What do you see of yourself in these people?" He answered: "Crook, dishonest" and his wife added: "they have probably put a spell on the judge to delay the action or for him to judge in their favor..." I told him: "You can take a look at all this as a part of yourself, all that is showing you your crooked part, the part of you that is dishonest, schemer, and manipulator; look how he is showing you this! And you, all this part where you like to manipulate energies to attract selfish benefits, look at this inside yourself! It is not enough to simply look at it, you also have to imagine that you are going to die within a couple of minutes, as you go out, a car crash, you die and as you are on the other side of the veil, after the 40 days during which we sort of float about...you take a look at your "travel warrant" and you say: "Damn! I have memories of crook, schemer, of dishonesty, and what about me, I have used magic to attract profits, and we still have them, we have missed the boat, we will have to incarnate ourselves again just because of those memories!" Do you realize? Learning to pi again, to brush your teeth again, just to be able to, 30 years later, start to heal a core of memories, which could have been done a century earlier! Can you imagine the waste of time?

Well then imagine the scene; can't you see that those people since 5 years are showing you this? Love them, they are prophets! They are guided by your energies that they channel and express to show you what you have to understand, to integrate, and to love inside yourselves in order to transform it! Well, well, well, something went click for them! The same night as they went back home, they did pray, they said OK, they even ended up in tears- and this is a good sign when it goes like that- they started to thank those beings, they did apologize inwardly for having insulted them, for having judged them. On the Monday morning they call me just before I take my train to go back home and they tell me: "Yesterday, on Sunday, we had a phone call from the lawyer, (and it is quite seldom for a lawyer to call on Sunday!) (Laughs) He told us: "Listen I have good news for you: These people have taken out a loan from the bank that was accepted to pay back your 500.000 francs, so you should have your money back within a week!"

This story could have lasted for a very long time still, with all the expenses and anxiety on top of the rest. Then they could have died in the mean time, and they would have incarnated new bodies to experience the same house sale, with the same owner and all the rest (laughs), in the mean time with inflation, the house would have coasted more money! (Laughs)

Do you realize how simple it is?

With this story you have seen that the love of the heart together with the global vision have sorted the problem inside them, and therefore outside them as well. Of course I am not talking about the dualistic love shared by lovers, although it is necessary to experience it since all these memories are "good" as well, -sorry, there is no other word...I am sorry, our language is dualistic and it is difficult to use telepathy only- these memories are excellent, if we mix this gentleness that is somehow stupid together with violence within a blender, what does it give? It gives something balanced; it gives someone who is kind and firm at once; it gives something that is correct, just, abundant, and rich.

If you mix in the bowl domination and submission, after having well mixed them until you obtain one matter only, we reach the soul's sovereignty, in other words the divine form that animates our vehicle and that transmits a form of willingness, which has no other choice but accomplishment, because in this case, we will never ever have a sterile word again.

In other words, each word will produce an effect, they will be no word's "miscarriage" anymore, and all those energies, all those memories that are pains in the neck and are present, we shouldn't chase them, but they have to unite in the middle to form something that doesn't have an existing name. Because there is no other name but "inner sovereignty" but it is not the right word, what would be the name to define the union and the fusion of domination and submission? There is none! Yes it produces freedom, but it is not freedom. Freedom will be a consequence of this fusion, so you see where we are going little by little! It gives infinite geometric patterns! So in fact, there is nothing to reject, not even there!

But it is necessary to see it, we must be aware of it, but it takes a lot of work. I have tried it out twice, a month apart with the same people, one group on Saturday and one group on Sunday, of 30 people each, and then a month later, the same group on Saturday, the same group on Sunday, and I must admit that on 30 people the second time, there was maybe 5 of them who were able to integrate a bit of this work. I am going to tell you that I have myself started to work blindly in the years 1985/86 and it took me at least 4/5 years to understand all this.

You have the generous one who has bottled up the stingy, and so who will attract people who will take advantage of his generosity and who will be stingy towards him, and you have the possessive man who will keep attracting women who leave him for another man, that's it, and it is normal, he attracts this, he is going to produce this because if he is possessive with women, it means that on the other side he throws them away; that's the way it is, otherwise he wouldn't be possessive. You necessarily have the two sides! If you have 5 pounds of this, you necessarily have 5 pounds of its opposite complementarity, because if this complementarity was not present inside our psyche, we all would be in a psychiatric hospital, since we wouldn't be balanced. So in the end the goal is to unite everything and to separate nothing.

We can also observe this law at work in the social field. The more a minority gets rich, the more poverty extends, it is a Cartesian logic and I can tell you that Descartes was certainly a great initiated, and we made out of him somebody not very clever (generally, according to rumors) but he was right, and the more I go ahead in this way, the more I can assure you that everything becomes concrete, real, logical, and there is no deficiency to this logic, it is quite surprising actually. There we are.

Now, as far as PMT is concerned, as the soul transmits memories, to avoid creating an imbalance that would be too much to bear, it is going to rub a little here and there. Because if it was giving the full memories, the subject would fall into a psychic imbalance that would be very annoying for the life he has to lead. So the memories condense inside the transmutation room, that is why the operator feels them, and automatically the two sides of the opposite polarity are transmuted at once and in the same way, uniting together within the encoder, which unites them into its spiral. As the encoder unites them together, it re-creates, as hydrogen and oxygen do together, a drop of water; that is balance, and in fact that is what happens with PMT, but at a higher speed.

In other words, the work that would perhaps take 2 years, since around this gentleness and this violence there are perhaps 500 patterns of mental and emotional concepts that need to become conscious before you have nothing left, before it can be transmuted, so it really represents 2/3 years of work with 2/3 hours a day approximately.

So let's admit, if there are a lot of memories that it will take 10 to 15 sessions. I have written on information papers that 7 sessions are necessary to trim the whole, but it seems that a lot of people don't manage to read the word "to trim", I don't know, it doesn't get through to them. Perhaps they are scared by this word but in fact it is really to trim, actually it is truly to trim because now, in retrospect I can tell you that it is really around the 8 th or 9 th session that the big hard cores are tackled. Until then, we get rid of things, knick-knacks, and the "big clean" starts only at this point.

I can assure you, and I just received my 14 th session, it is still a great release, but now it is really hard cores, because you now some memories are truly concreted within the body. It is a little bit as a carrot in a garden that had no rain for about three months: even the soul has trouble taking it off to put it into the transmutation room. This is the reason why I had to add new codes recently, and there will be others in January, so don't be surprised if PMT starts to really clear off, besides I said it the other day, I have had a dream in which I had an enormous encoder that was taking off all the memories. PMT also works for groups, and I am going to speak about it, even if it is recorded, we will see!

The Earth is like a human body, in other words it has a body of ether, an astral body, which is the emotional body, then a mental body, and at last a causal body; so it is like a being, like us and the dead ones live there; the deceased people live there in those layers, according to the degree of evolution they have reached. There are not at all in heaven, they are here, they are always on earth.

So in these layers if you want, well it is the same as with our bodies, there are memories that radiate, and those memories that radiate in the shape of magma, of things like that-I make balls, stains, ropes, there can be canvas like that- well they are radiated by all the human beings that we are, here. We are as little microbes that send our little poison back, or better things as well, purer, into those bodies there. So the Earth's bodies are also "dirty" because of our thoughts, our emotions, and our actions. Memories of same nature melt together, and it forms very big clouds, canvas, knitting, threads, and ropes, exactly like what we find in the transmutation room when we give a session. When you give a session to someone you find exactly what is around the Earth.

Let's take racism as an example. You know that racism is not to say "you are white, you are black, you are Arab, you are Swiss..." it is not this, no. The "you are beautiful, you are ugly" is already racism," you are skinny, you are fat, you are clever, you are stupid" this is already racism! As soon as judgment arises there is racism, as soon as there separation there is racism, all this forms clouds that are located in different zones and different layers. There are wasted energies, wasted forces that feed themselves amongst each other as a dynamo.

And then there are crafty ones who say : Well, well, it is magnificent because down here there are 6 billions of human beings who are like little antennas to this, in fact it is a television or computers web, that picks up a program that is here within the satellite memories of the Earth, and they say if we amplify this for instance, this memory of violence against the black race to take an example, it is here, the core is here, well we are going to amplify it, we send laser rays into it, automatically, if here on earth there is an African country where some white people are still into separation, well, they are going to have their own memories connected and influenced by this core, amplified on top of it, these memories are going to swell up as tumors, they are going to be possessed by these memories, and they will have no other choice but to increase their racism and their acts of violence, and they will want to rebel against the black race.

Now if memories of racism are transmuted inside me then I am disconnected from this influence. So you can understand that the transmutation of cellular memories and so PMT is a weapon to attain INDIVIDUAL SOVEREIGNTY and to stop being influenced by mass movements and energies of mass manipulation, that are going to become more and more oppressive, more and more intense, more and more compressive.

Question within the audience:

Sir, one question: Considering these hundreds of thousands of years life's system is quite well organized though ...

Joël: absolutely!

But when we listen to you there is a huge problem, there is really something wrong?

Joël answers: Well yes, what is your question then? (Laughs amongst the audience)

The question is how do you explain, that in this life, which is relatively well done, how is it possible to have such a problem...How is it possible?

Joël: Thank you for the good question! As you read the Bible, whatever we might think about it, it is spoken of a certain Tree of Life, a Tree of Knowledge of good and evil and Adam and Eve-of course it is a symbolic language- the two trees mentioned are levels of consciousness.

The consciousness of the Tree of Life is there as we unite good and evil as one energy alone; it is the top of the triangle. You understand the base of the cult of trinity that you can find everywhere and then the Snake came and said-basically speaking, what I am saying right now is a little bit childish, but still there is something behind it- the snake came, in other words some aliens came on Earth, coming from reptilian constellations, even if it sounds a little bit "....." even if you don't believe in it, it doesn't matter, I used to not believe in it 30 years ago but now I do, because I have proofs of it.

These aliens came to bribe the humans who were magnificent beings, but quite naïve, they didn't have much experience. They have incited them little by little to lower down their level of consciousness, which means to lower down to the knowledge of the fruit of the Tree of knowledge of good and evil, the famous apple of Eve. What is this fruit in fact? It is an act that we have produced and from then on everything separated: sovereignty separated into two opposite polarities: Domination/submission, violence/gentleness, generosity/greed, and conservation instinct/fight against the poorest races.....

From then on everything did separate in two, even the climate! Of course it might sound a little bit bizarre as a story, but all this has lasted for hundreds of thousands of years.

It is also true that considered within the notion of cosmic time, what is it? Perhaps a minute (in terms of cosmic and universal time); It has been a minute since we fight inside here, of course, as you say life is wonderful, because there is always this molecular intelligence, this intelligence of emptiness, the full emptiness, which is in fact the presence of the divine that we truly are, we are gods but we have forgotten it because we became amnesic.

It is exactly like your little finger is a part of you, but it has forgotten it, and if it has forgotten it the blood circulation stops, it dies, unless it bends his knees in front of the index, which is much taller than him, because it's his guru! That is what we live into!

We are the ones who have subconsciously created, by naivety, a false vision of what life is, but life, when you take a look at nature, animals, and even the human beings who we are, we must recognize that we are quite strong for having survived and kept a minimum of intelligence.

But here we are at a time where we are going to get out of it, we are at the end of a time, at the end of a system, and this one system is starting to fall apart bit by bit, and they are trying to stick it back together again as they can with a system of increasing good and evil!

In other words, now, we have to do well everywhere! So to do good we are given insurances, constraints, (Laughs), radars to reduce the number of dead people on the roads, so we do "good" but automatically they are going to increase "evil", but this is what they want in order to create chaos, and once chaos will be installed, everybody is going to bend their knees to have a global government. (See Daniel's prophecy)

Look at all this! But all this is also magnificent! I am not criticizing; I only explain how to get out of it with the less harm possible, because as Jesus said "the great majority will not go this way, since it is the narrow way that leads to life". The others don't live, they function! Some of them are trying to get out of the functioning system; they sleep on the streets of the cities. In other words, they get out of the system without understanding the key so they fall into "survival".

We are starting to live, that's it! The goal of what I am saying tonight is this! It is to become sovereign and independent of the system of course it is not going to please everyone, but that's the way it is! If within some years, many of us have progressed so that a "critical mass" is reached, there will be enough people who will be cut from the transmitting threads of these cores, so these cores won't be fed by our memories anymore, and there will be a shortage of fuel for those who utilize those forces in order to manipulate more naïve masses.....

.....I know that it can't "get in" easily, I am sorry, it might sound a little bit "shaggy" and I am sorry if I do appear as an "alight" (nutcase) (Laughs) but you will not manage to turn me off (Laughs).

Question in the audience: Isn't it possible to "fight" those forces?

Joël: No, if we fight them we give them even more strength! Because then we stay into duality! Imagine that you insult me and then I fight you because you insult me, so I am going to adjust to your frequency level and I am going to react, I am not going to act, so I am going to feed your anger, your second word is then going to be even worse, you understand? Because I will have fed the "thing". We always feed the other's spitefulness as we react, whether when we are transparent and into the heart, it deflates as the ball that passes through the wall instead of bouncing. You see? The only way to diminish the power of those who have a precise plan for the planet is to work upon the self, and here again I tell you, their plan is magnificent because we have attracted this too!

So as they proselytize to harvest a troop that is going to polish their shoes for another 10 to 15 000 years, they help us to break free from all this and there will be two groups on earth: one that is going towards a way of life, and another that is going to live what we live now- as I often say as a joke- war, disease and marriage, and you will see that it is not that wrong, because the first sect in the world is marriage, the second is the family, and then you have villages, races, religions etc... It is the very base of sectarianism and separation!

It does not mean that you should not get married, alright, be careful! But it is a mistake of the system since no one ever had the right to marry two persons by divine authority, it never existed, it never was, and this is a lie, a huge manipulation! So divorce and be happy! (Laughs)

The only true marriage that exists is the marriage with the higher consciousness, the Higher Self! In other words as long as you clear up ancient programs, you pass through the seven initiatory circles, the seven initiatory turns, and at a given time, the Higher Self, which is represented by a triangle with the tip on top, slowly gets down into the triangle with the tip underneath, which represents the three bodies of incarnation to form the Star of David in 3D, which gives the Merkabah field, and then your Merkabah is done- and not with breathing techniques. When we have to force to do something, it means that it is not right. It has to happen by itself little by little as long as love spreads within our cells. That's how it goes in general!

Do you know what was happening during sacrifices in ancient Temples ? I am telling you this so that you have a better understanding of the memories, how they act as self-intelligent entities, which manipulate us as possessions. You know, throughout Antiquity they used to sacrifice animals in Temples , they used to go with a lamb, a pigeon, which was hijacked by the Church, which said that Jesus did sacrifice for us! They took back ancient tricks to show this, it took me 20 years to understand this. When you read the story of Abel and Cain,

You have to know that at that time people used to be vegan and the climate on earth was "universal" there used to be neither Eskimos, nor too hot equator. So people used to need almost no clothes and to eat only fruits that were huge and very rich. It must be quite pleasant to eat like that! And all of a sudden, there was the fall into the Tree of knowledge of good and evil, so everything started to deteriorate.

Cain and Abel had this idea to offer sacrifices to God, so Abel killed a lamb to offer it to the Creator, it is said in the Bible that God approved Abel's sacrifice who had killed an animal, when at this time animals used to die of old age, although God refused Cain's sacrifice, which was certainly less cruel, as there it was only pulling up plants and flowers. So how is it possible that in such surroundings where animal's skins were not needed to dress because of the climate, and where no meat was needed because they used to take proteins from nitrogen contained into the air, exactly as cows do now, because at that time the air used to contain more nitrogen, and the consumption of dairy products and meat was not necessary. So how is it possible that God might approve a cruel sacrifice and not the other? There is something quite bizarre, don't you think so?

Abel was rather humble, he used to believe that he was full of sins (we are going to use this old language if it is ok for you, just for now) and this is the reason why he took an animal that was a much better absorber of memories than a simple plant, while Cain thought: "I don't have too many sins, I am right myself, so a little daisy is enough for God". It did upset me for a while and then later when the apostle says: "There is no forgiving without bloodshed!"

I thought what kind of God is this? Is it now necessary to kill in order to forgive? Little by little I went through deductions, and there are other laws that are given in Deuteronomy.

When later on I started to channel energy, but I was not transmuting it, in other words when someone was coming to see me, I was standing still in front of the person and I was waiting for it to happen by itself, but the subtle waste were kicked out from the client's body without being transmuted, then they were going into the cat's body that would die within 8 days, or they were going into the fishes of the aquarium that would jump outside and would end up on the carpet the next morning.

This is why they used to offer sacrifices in Temples at a given time of the astrological calendar, while killing the animal and with his energy the great priest was purifying the bodies of the people who used to come to the Temple on Easter for the Jews, and on other days for the Arabs; and automatically, they could keep a genetics much cleaner than other people, in order to allow much more advanced souls to utilize those "vehicles" cleaner than those of the wild native people that were present in the surroundings. Sacrifice was this; it is a scientific act that used to be totally ignored by people, only initiates used to know this.

What happens here if we keep radiating judgments, separation, and violence in our subconscious or conscious memories? If one day the planet's bodies are over saturated by those cores, the planet will implode, there will be no Earth left, it will be the end, we all will die, and there will be no survivors! So what is needed to purify all this if there aren't millions of people who transmute their memories and are on a path of purification, how can we do this? Well, sacrifices are necessary, don't you think so?

These memories of violence and of dogmatic separation are going to be sucked in by a nation whose souls are less advanced, where most of the human beings still have a lot of those energies of good and evil that will then serve as "lightning conductor" for those cores, which will be sucked into their bodies. They will then want to kill in the name of a law that might be military, that might be economical, that might be religious, that might be racial, and they will be pushed to do so. By killing other human beings who also have these energies inside them and so attract those separatist killers, and well by the bloodshed, the core is going to clean up itself since its contain will have been drained away thanks to the actions expressed by a group of humans. This is the global sacrifice.

This is why in Daniel's Prophecy, chapter XII it is said: "when the perpetual or global sacrifice will cease, the 1290 days tribulation will start" in other words 3 years and a half. The apostle Paul says: "when they will speak of peace and security, sufferings will fall onto the earth etc...then the great tribulation will start."

Question in the audience: Is it already breaking loose?

Joël: No not yet, this is only the aperitif!

When you transmute your memories-and this is not to advertise for PMT, this is not the problem-if you want to do it the old way well do it the old way, but do it to stop feeding those cores, this is what needs to be done : to not feed them any longer or the less possible at least.

The more we are going to work about this, the less people killed, the less wars, the less global government; this is the only solution, there are no others. Please excuse me for my certainties, but it's been 35 years since I study all this and it is not through studies that I understand but rather through the smacks that I receive. You know, smacks do open your eyes indeed!

What is going on upon the planet is exactly happening inside our bodies this is to say that at a given time, as our memories radiates in our external bodies, well there is a saturation and there starts a sort of internal implosion and then start cancer, aids etc...or even genocide, we are going to attract this as well; It might be a psychological genocide like self-sabotage.

So you see how it works. I have mentioned small individual cases and one more global case, but it is exactly what happens. Do you know how I did understand this story of sacrifices as well? Some time ago in a French region called Auvergne, when kids used to have warts, their mother used to put a piece of bacon onto the wart for a certain time, I don't know for how long exactly, then they used to take it and bury it in the garden, and the piece of bacon was taking the wart away while putrefying.

Here is a sacrifice; it means that the ether frequencies of our thoughts and of the radiations we give out through our feelings, our emotions and even through those that we are not aware of have an extremely powerful action! And this is the reason why those who govern us have always wanted to hide the truth about energy- particularly during the middle Ages, when they used to burn the sorcerers who knew these energetic manifestations, because they used to utilize them to heal, to help people. People were told that it was "the devil."

Well now I am expecting your questions, I don't know what to say anymore.

Question in the audience: Memories often conceal themselves.....(not audible)

Joël:.....At a given time, they have to. But it is true that they try to escape! There is a woman in a French region called Alsace who is clairvoyant and during the sessions she has received she has seen very well little black clouds that were going out of her body as well as a purple light going out of the encoder that was trying to catch the memory, and the memory was trying to escape backwards,(Laughs) and the purple light was trying to take it on the other side, (Laughs), it was coming back this way (Laughs), besides she did burst out laughing during the session and she said "it's like seeing cat and mouse in a cartoon!"

This is true, you're right with what you say because I didn't talk about it, memories are self-intelligent, they have their own personality, their own will of independency, and they certainly don't want to obey, this is why when you give out an intention like: " I live in a precarious accommodation, I would need another flat, bigger, more spacious, calmer" you have hundreds of memories that say: "Out of question, we stay here!"

So then imagine a king who enacts a law and not a single citizen agrees. What can he do? He might as well give up and go home! He would have no effect, no authority. I see it with some people who have already released many programs, at a given time, when about 80 % of the memories do more or less agree with you and start to rally to the soul's will, as you say a word or have a thought, it manifests almost instantly. For instance I had spontaneous experiences of it: Sometimes I would think "Well, it would be nice to have an answering machine, it would be nice to have a flat", within 8 to 15 days, I was told:"Well, there is an answering machine here for you, I won it at a lottery, I don't need it since I have another one already, don't you want it?"

At a certain time I have had the need for a car, I didn't have any, a friend calls me and tells me: "I had the dream that I was selling you my Mercedes (Laughs) at such price...." It may sound really stupid but that's the way it is! It is extremely powerful; you know the word is a tool of an amazing power when it is said "with all the power of the cells."

We are going to take the example of a woman, because it happens more often with women than men. If a woman contains memories of a rapist man inside her, since she was a man who raped along time; some day, as this memory is starting to arise, at the time when it has to pass the door, in other words when the soul wants to get rid of this memory, which is going to radiate within the energetic bodies of this lady, well this lady is going to find herself in a situation where a rapist will be "fed", even if this guy never raped anyone, on that day, if he has this tendency it will be fed by this memory and that will push him to such action.

Please realize inside you brain the power of the energies that pass through a ....first choice beefsteak (the physical body)!

Do you really realize the sovereignty of the cell's power? Do you truly realize that?

Well, it took me 30 years!

Do you understand that this memory, passing through the physical flesh of this lady was able to materialize a situation, as if it was a god who was ordering such necessity, here we need a rapist now...

As a Master who says: "Here we need some bread," he does "this" and here the bread appears! It is the same powerfulness we are talking about, please realize this!

We have naïvely believed that power was belonging to saints and masters, we were encouraged to pray to them, and they are ready to help us but the real strength comes from the expression of the flame of life as it projects through the cells of a body of incarnation, at the very least in this world here. Looking above we never see anything, and we speak into the void, we have all sorts of gesture, we cross ourselves, all of a sudden we get messages coming from Lord knows where, saying Lord know what, which are flattering, still nothing changes because the same lady is still raped...

All this because you are still not Aware that you are gods, and that you are all-powerful as far as manifestation and materialization of your money, your house, your relationships and your job are concerned, and this is true for me too because I am on the same boat.

If this rapist memory is transmuted into a memory of love and respect towards the other and towards the opposite gender...What is this lady going to materialize in her life? A man who will manifest this quality towards her!

It means that she is a goddess who produces her complementarities, thanks to her memories yet well transformed and of higher frequencies. So that is the true power, of course if we pray and pray and pray, we increase the frequencies and we reach at least a telephone number that gives us a helpful information. Nevertheless prayer is very helpful in difficult times; it is like food, soul food, but all the same we still have to transform since angels and Masters are certainly not going to transform us in our place. Because they had to experience all this themselves in order to be where they are now and they had it ten times harder since they didn't have all the tools that we have nowadays here. So they had it much harder, believe me!

This is why they are our Masters now, who guide us, and who try to help without helping too much, otherwise we will remain lazy, we will remain stupid.

Question: Is it possible that the person who receives PMT sessions might fall again into old behaviors or attract the same kind of obstacles?

Joël: The person cannot recreate her or his memory, she, or he can't do it anymore because it is transmuted within the flesh, the work as you do it is beautiful, be careful, I have no intention to compare at all, it is not a question of one being better than the other, no, this is not at all what it is about; but it takes a lot of time before it can be transmuted within the flesh because there are layers, and each memory has several layers.

Put it this way, perhaps while doing this work with someone with great perseverance, it will clean up layer by layer but as long as the last layer hasn't been cleared, it tends to reactivate the same old system, this is the problem, and when you reach the 7th initiatory degree, when you reach the end of the path, you reach the central core that is called the "threshold's guardian" and all the memories that you have cleaned up are still here! (Laughs)

It is the root of the memories, it is the core that has produced all these layers for thousands of years and as you reach the core, everything is inside, still concentrated, and it does not transform, it does not get transmuted, it breaks out by the crucifixion of the ego, which is a big piece of work, but I can tell you that when it is transmuted within the flesh, the person does not go back to his or her ancient functioning, he or she cannot go back to it, and even would not fancy it at all.

For instance, a person who has been submitted to her husband, to her boss, or to his wife if it is a man, or to anybody, after 7 or 8 or even 15 sessions perhaps, will manage to find a certain form of independence, of sovereignty; she or he will never ever submit again, but she or he will not dominate either, she or he will prefer to leave, but will not be able to submit again. This person will become independent, without falling again into the ancient pattern, because there will be no fear left at all.

On the other hand, you are right and it is clever to say that it is important to be aware of what gets transmuted, but the problem is that most of us have to have a job and in big cities as Paris, Montreal, there is hyperactivity, noise, agitation of course, and I do believe that our guides from above said something like : "Well, never mind, we are going to do it this way, we are going to transmute memories they are not even aware of, never mind because it is urgent."

It is a bit late now; I believe that 50 years ago, if all those who are on a path like you had worked on themselves in this deep way that is described by Mère and Sri Aurobindo, whose teachings didn't get enough attention-for the majority...almost nobody heard their message...very few at the most- well I believe that PMT would never have existed and we wouldn't have needed it.

Because PMT is a bit like a wheelchair for our handicap to transmute, so I am making wheelchairs, that's it, and you make them work, it is as simple as this. But it is true and you are right, the real work would rather be this, to learn to know all the pieces of the puzzle we are made of, and which is not us but most of the time like old movies.

Very often I mention the example of the film projector and all the memories are within the roll, and you have a movie screen that is daddy, mummy, the kids, the postman, the banker, and all that surrounds us. For a long time we were taught to believe that we had to hit everything that didn't please us, visible on the screen, or even cut the screen, and we didn't understand that it was inside the film roll.

Sometimes, tired of fighting, what did we used to do? We were changing cinema, and we ended up watching the same movie, with other actors, and this is how you find a woman with an alcoholic husband who falls in love again with another man who becomes alcoholic too; and she keeps going on... Here we are with the merry-go-round because she has not understood that she is carrying alcoholism inside her inner memories and it is something we can see during the sessions, we can even say, when there is a particular energy at a certain place, we can even say in the end: Your partner drinks, or if he doesn't he will drink soon or later (Laughs).

If she heals this memory, he won't drink anymore-he will have a glass of good wine, but he will not become a slave. This is mathematic! So the work of awareness you deal with is the real work in fact, and if you want PMT is a work of urgency, that's all, besides Italian people tell me this when they send e-mails, they say it : the master word of PMT is ACCELERATION! That's what it's all about: ACCELERATION!

Question in the audience: Are we aware of what is coming up during the session?

Joël : Well, we are not always aware, the operator might say : " There was some heavy stuff in the feminine emotional zone" but on top of it we don't have any precision regarding the context of these memories, for instance we cannot say "You have raped kids during other life times, and we can see it here"...I believe that it is not necessary, and it would be inappropriate since there is still far too much guilt, traumas in us to hear these things, we don't have to know and it is useless, but it is possible to give an idea that will already guide the person.

If for instance a man has extremely mean feminine parts, you can be sure that his wife is someone very violent and bad-tempered, well I had one guy like that here, who told me: "Yes, but I adapt" he is a courageous man, it is beautiful, but it is true that after several sessions his wife is going to become much softer or she is going to leave.

The operator will necessarily attract people who have a relation of memories with him... (Laughs) Yes, of course, you can't escape that! You know that nothing is by chance. I was told that there is a quantum relationship between the subject, the technology and the operator, and it seems that when we give a session to somebody, we heal other things in other dimensions, but please don't ask for more details here, because I don't know, this is what I feel, this is what I know, but that I don't explain...

Inaudible question.....You spoke earlier of working with energies, but that it didn't cancel the memories.

Joël: Well therapy for instance can help, it helps the memories radiations to get cleaner, which is already good, but it does not transmute within the flesh, or perhaps it would after 20 years!

Inaudible question: .....So would it be good to do this transmutation together with energetic treatment?

Joël: It can be complementary, yes absolutely, I have nothing against it! Sometimes as you give a session to someone who releases huge packs because they are some souls that are rather kamikaze! They give out tons and tons of things, well then the person is a bit shaky for 2 or 3 days, well then in this case a little reiki session can help...This is very good!

Same person:.....It happened to me the other day, during the session with M...during the entire session, I had to stop from time to time and I had to put my hand on my solar plexus...

Joël: She couldn't stand it anymore!

Same person:..... It has re-harmonized and it lasted for more than two hours...

Joël: Well, we can say that it is a special case, it is one case on 1000 persons, but it can happen.

Well, it is not against, it is something else, PMT is not a therapy but a technology, PMT is here to help people becoming better in order to attract better things, and behind all this, there is an entire change that is happening backwards that I cannot really explain.

Question: A friend of mine released her karma with a healer and she had to go through really difficult things just after that. What could be said in regard to this?

Let's imagine that the powerful healer is a person who works by sending light into people's body, but what she does not know is that as she is putting a laxative on someone constipated, one day the anus blows up. Do you understand the picture I am trying to give? If we have to deal with someone powerful in her energy and who forces light-energy into the body, the memories are going to come up and they are going to attract all sorts of catastrophes. She has not healed her karma, she has pulled it out, and she has revealed it. When here, what we do is to transmute.

But pay attention, when there are big hard cores, the person is still going to go through series of tests, but she or he will experience them with stability, balance, an intelligence that will make it short, it will not last for years, it will only last for a couple of months at the most, that's all. But take it this way, PMT is definitely not something that says: "I have memories of murderers, 2 or 3 sessions and that's it I won't need to get smacks anymore"...No, if there is a real big pack, there will still be little things happening, but I tell you it will be little things only.

Inaudible question in the audience.....

Joël: Of course, if we change the picture in the film, the faces that we see on the screen will be a bit more pleasant, it is logical; this is how you can change your life. This is the reason why I was talking about the divine power of the memories as they go through the physical flesh, because if you change this, you change your life, and you change everything, it's incredible! We could write a book now, with all the feedbacks I get! It's incredible, someone who has no money, he has only the amount to pay ten sessions, and then all of a sudden BOOM, something happens, it works for him, even if he has no diplomas, even if he doesn't have skills, because the lack of money comes from some memories that we have inside us, which are very powerful memories of aristocracy that radiate in producing a professional desert leading to financial lack.

Inaudible question in the audience:.....Does the lack of money comes from aristocratic souls?

Joël: Of course! Nothing is by chance! Most of the homeless people who sleep in the streets are in this case! When you look in their eyes, you can see ancient barons.

Inaudible question in the audience .....

Joël: There can be some cases, particularly for the first session, where the soul resists; it is not the person who resists. Do not forget that it is the soul that decides, the person sometimes does not want to. I have already seen a husband who came because he wanted to please his wife; the soul has given a maximum although he was saying: Well, I come here, Ah the music is nice! He didn't feel anything (Burst of Laughs) but his soul gave a ton of memories! He never came back, but he did help his wife because he was no longer feeding things too heavy for her. It is quite astonishing; sometimes you can be really surprised!

But you are right; there are some souls sometimes, most of the time during the first session, I suppose that you operators must have seen this from time to time, there is not much in the transmutation room, there are little bits and pieces, here and there, a little thread, a little strip to the left or to the right, in this case we must work at the ceiling of the room, there is what I call the "ceiling of power".

It is souls that have occupied high positions as kings, queens, politic leaders, religious leaders, popes etc...These souls are so arrogant that they don't want to change, they say: "I am very well this way, I was chosen by God himself, I was Pope such and such, so I am an elect, so I don't need to change." They don't want to give. Sometimes these souls are going to incarnate in a vehicle called Peter, and who wants to go ahead! In fact this soul had to choose a vehicle that wants to go ahead!

So in this case, it will be the type of person... that does everything! He attends seminars, he reads all the books, he meditates, he uses breathing techniques, Merkabah fields, and nothing moves in his life. Why? Because backwards the soul says: "Go for it my friend, I..."(bursts of Laughter) In most cases, after three sessions, once the ceiling has been broken, it starts to give because it has to. In some other cases 6 or 7 sessions are necessary when it is all hard and heavy, and as you know a guy who pays for 7 sessions and if nothing happens in general he will give up!

There are some regions where we meet a majority of persons who need several sessions before the soul can start to give enough. Why such a difference? It is true that the souls choose not only their genetics, necessary for the memories to pass through, but also this genetics will happen to be on lands where some events happened in relation with the encodings of the soul, this same place where you live is your mirror.

Your house as well: If you have a hall that is too small, it might mean that the opening you have regarding the welcome of others is a little bit narrow, yes....nothing is by chance! Besides, you are the one who told me that since you give PMT sessions at your place, your neighbors have left, they moved because they are no longer your mirror, and in the same time, the double pyramid of the transmutation room overtakes the neighbors place. When we give sessions in apartments, it radiates above, underneath, it makes things move very simply.

Inaudible intervention.....

Joël: There are things that might happen as well, that you have to understand, that you could understand without sentimentalism. You know that there are many old persons that are at the end of their way but sometimes they stay alive and the soul doesn't care anymore, school time is over, some holidays are needed, but the scholar smock is like glued on earth and the person cannot leave.

Why? Because there are memories here, which connect this person either to the place, or more often to her family. In this case, it happened to me- I had my first session on November 9 th of 2004, so the next day after I found it all, and seven days later, on the 16 th of November at the very same time when I had my session, my father fell asleep and never woke up again...He was 80 years old, his time was over, he had a magnificent death while falling asleep. This session I received transmuted in my flesh some memories that were in relationship with him and subconsciously these memories used to feed his vitality in order for him not to pass away, and in the same time he was acting as a "mirror", so sometimes things like that can happen too. Do you understand what I mean, some ties are like this, and once they are transmuted, the person is freed and he or she is happy as now he or she can consider another plane of existence and stop hanging around on this earth without truly living.

It is possible to give sessions from a distance but it is not good to do so, because it is necessary that the person takes the necessary steps to come, and to make the effort to pay since nothing is for free within the Cosmos, everything is exchange; never undervalue a work otherwise you show a feeling of mediocrity that is going to attract what? Mediocrity...

Intervention in the audience, from far.....

Joël: Well, then you wait for the check and you give the session afterwards! Let's admit that you have someone who lives close to St Jean 's lake and the temperature is of minus 30 Celsius degrees in January, you live in Montreal , he needs a session but there is nobody close to his area! Well, then he calls you, Ok, I will give you a session etc..."You send the check and I will give you your session at such time.

Then on that day you sit in your armchair, you relax in the same time. You imagine the person on the chair, and if you can have his photo or his name, it is more tiring because you have to concentrate on the person at the same time; a stronger mental concentration is required. So I advise you against doing it...

It is also possible to give sessions to deceased people... For instance, my father, three days after his funerals, he came to my house, I felt his presence, and then I told him: "I understand what you want", Ok, I did put the chair, the encoders, I told him to sit down and I gave him a session that lasted 15 minutes, since it goes very fast with an entity, there is no physical body left, ...and then he left, he smiled, and he never came back again.

It also helps them to get the rid of memories waste that normally glue into the bodies of ether; but it is more easy here, it is quicker.

Inaudible intervention in the audience:.....

Joël: If you give a session for free, you can do it with your husband or your daughter, it stays in the family, and they might give it back another way, you see, it's not the same...

Question: What if I give sessions for free still?

Joël: At a certain point it will get stuck, nobody will come anymore and on top of it you might attract people whose soul will give nothing; because it will be people who say: "Ah, she does it for free, let's go for it and the soul is unwilling so you are going to waste such and such time for nothing, and the person is going to say: " you know your thing is rubbish" and it is going to turn against you, and you won't have any body coming anymore.

This is what you get when you work for free.

Anyway, the people who shouldn't have PMT sessions can't find the money. If they don't have the money it is that they shouldn't receive it. However it is not an injustice because if they don't have any money it is because they have created this lack of money; so they get what they have to experience. Now you shouldn't be rigid either, there might be exceptions and it is good to be flexible; for instance if you see someone who is really in total poverty, because this person has really horrible memories inside her but she has a true willingness to go ahead towards more light.

For example, I have a friend in Italy who has really nothing, but she is a magnificent woman, she is good hearted, but she has memories of aristocracy so automatically, everything she is trying to start falls apart in catastrophe. She told me on the phone: "Joël, I can't receive sessions, I don't have any money..." So I told her: "Go find an operator so that she gives you sessions, and when the problem will be solved, you will have a salary, and you will pay her back! That's it! This is what happened:

After the 6th session, she found herself a well paid job, and now she is able to pay back for the sessions she has received. So I advise you to be flexible.

For instance, when you make a real donation, nobody sacrifices, do you know that? Because as soon as you sacrifice you are not into love anymore because you hate yourself so if you do not love yourself, how could you love others? It is impossible, this is how it works with sacrifice, the thing that we were brainwashed with, for them to manipulate us more easily and make money on our backs, that's all!

If money exists it is because God has created it since we are God! You understand? We are little sparks of the divine! Money is as "divine" as the rest, it is the way we used it, which is not great! It is the same for sex; it is the same for all the rest! But everything is just, everything is perfect! You know one day in a French region called Alsace, I was giving a 70 euros session and there is a man who lives in an eco-village, it was two years ago, with another system I had created. So this man told me: "I have taken out my last seven bills from the cash point because I prefer to feed my soul than my body!" Thank God I was sitting otherwise I would have fallen down!

And as I saw the beautiful faith of this man, I went to see the guy who was organizing my tour, there was 3 or 4 days of sessions planed, and I told him: "Isn't there someone yesterday who has left more money?" It happened quite often that some people would say: "Here you are, I give you 100 euros and you can keep the rest, it is worth it!" This man told me: "Actually yesterday a lady has left 30 euros more and another lady left 10 euros on top"; so I go to see the guy and tell him: "Your session will cost you only 30 euros since yesterday two persons have left more money." In the mean time a woman who was in the waiting room and who had heard it all said: "I will give the 30!" So in the end his session didn't cost him any money! And nobody had to sacrifice! The organizer didn't have to and still was able to get his commission, and I didn't have to either. The persons who have given have grown richer by giving because they didn't even know that they were going to give for this man, this is the reason why I used to put aside what people were giving on top and the day I was meeting someone who really had nothing, he used to benefit from it. This is true donation, abundant donation, which doesn't undervalue your work and doesn't ask anybody to sacrifice.

Inaudible intervention regarding the encoders.....

Joël: Well, first of all it is not one encoder, but SEVEN encoders, the encoder is the little tube that I have shown you earlier; with one encoder you cannot give a PMT session. 6 encoders are required to give PMT sessions but I provide 7, just in case one of them would get broken.

It is also possible for the operator to use two encoders at once during the session.

Anyone can ask for it, but I like to see the person or at least listen to her or him on the telephone in order to feel her or his motivation; and there is a 12 pages booklet and a DVD. When the person is living far like this operator from Cameroon , I don't ask them to come to receive the training because it would cost them a whole lot of money. On the DVD, we have filmed a session together with a commentary. People get over with it, and they do it.

As long as they can feel the energies, they quickly understand how it works. If there are people from Quebec or from the United States who want to do it, I send the whole thing by Post, they don't have to come in France , or I don't need to go there either. If one day they ask me to go there, I agree on going to give conferences, sessions and then give a training course.

Although in time, I plan to stop giving conferences as well as training courses, so in the future, people will have to learn the basics from the DVD.

Inaudible intervention

Joël: Yes, in some cases of bewitchment, the cause of it is that these persons have already flirted with those entities during other life times; the mirror process causes that we meet again old accomplices of an ancient time...Once these memories cleared out, the entity (ies) that used to come can't come anymore, since they no longer have the telephone number (Laughs) the cookies have been removed from the computer, so they cannot come anymore, but sometimes when it is something really strong, 5 or 6 sessions are necessary before we can get through.

So, as far as sessions are concerned, those who really want to rush into it and go ahead, if they are young healthy people, if they want to have a session every two weeks, it's alright, now for a person who is already...hum who is an old man like me, it is recommended to take it a little slower, because the memories take more time to get transformed within the flesh, they are transmuted during the session as far as the soul is concerned, but 15 to 20 hours later it starts to operate at the flesh level and the older you are the more time it takes; If it takes longer it is going to radiate in the aura, therefore this aura is going to attract a situation that might be the mirror of what is getting transmuted sometimes.

For instance, we can take the case of M..... who decided to have two sessions in a week time, because here we have a whole team of Parisian operators who are incredible, like enthusiastic kids, several of them get together to give a session (it is possible to do so), it is faster and they play with it (Laughs), I adore them... They get together and let's go, Saturday afternoon ...and let us transmute! (Laughs)

So, M..... receives a session, I don't know how old she is? She is around 60? And on the next Saturday she receives another session! What happened? The same night or perhaps the day after, she got attacked in the streets of her village-in a village on top of it! - She received rape threats! At the age of 60! Mind you, she told me on the phone: "I felt a little bit flattered though!" (Laughs) that a young man, he was not even old may be interested by her like that!

Well nothing serious really happened, since she is a well anchored woman, she has character, and I am pretty sure that when she gives somebody a clout he must feel it, because she is quite square though (Laughs) and in fact she was asking me why. As I know her- I was the one to give her the first session- and I know that in the sexual field there is a lot of filth, well I tell her: "Listen, you have a great deal of things in the sexual, you receive two sessions in one go, it doesn't have time to get transmuted and you already go for the second one, so then it goes out even stronger, then of course you attract the guy who passes in the street, suddenly feels a desire, he has to jump on what is in move" (Laughs), well that's it! (Laughs) In the end it was not too terrible (Laughs) because on top of it this happened during day time (laughs) so it was not too bad.

Question: How much time is required between two sessions?

Joël: Well, 21 days is a good deal, it is convenient. But as I told you, if there is someone who has "given nothing" during the session, it is possible to redo a session a week after and it will start to "give," there will be no problem.

Question: Are there any risks?

Joël: No, no problem, no risks, there are no risks at all.

Less audible question:.....kids?

Joël: Yes, actually I wanted to talk about this. It is not recommended to give sessions to kids, it won't harm them, but it will not give great results. Why is it so? Because the soul can only transmit the memories within the transmutation room if the body of ether, the mental, astral, and causal bodies already attained maturity, since it is these bodies that serve as "bridges" to transmit the memories within the transmutation room. So if you do it to a little child, for some time there will be memories at the ground level, and a little up to the knees, and then it will stop. Perhaps for a teenager who is 15 or 16 years old, yes, you can do it yet, and it is possible to help him avoid having trouble later on.

Intervention in the audience: Some children already have severe patterns..

Joël: Yes, in this case, it is the parents who need transmutation, since the kid is the mirror of his parents. When the parents have sessions themselves, the kid will transform as well. It will not necessarily be straight away as sometimes it is cores of memories that are slow and heavy.

Some memories are like mastic, it doesn't even get in really well into the encoder! 2 or 3 sessions are needed for one memory, to manage getting it because it is sturdy stuff! Sometimes there are people who have "more constipated" genetics, for instance the German race; you almost need a motor cultivator to remove the memories! In Belgium it is prickling, there is no mass, you would think you are in a field of hedgehogs, or a field of nettles; the masses only start to come out after 3 or 4 sessions. It is also true that these are countries where there is a lot of aristocracy. If you deal with Italians, or Spanish, it is something else. For instance, in Italy, when I go to Milan, Turin, or Rome, I can see a huge amount of hate between men and women; this is the country where they hate each other the most in their memories! The Catholic Church fed this for 2000 years, well, almost!